General Comment

I would like to fully support Mr Peter Grocke submission to your enquiry.

His submission sums up the frustration, hurt and worries of many farmers, which have been for far too long ignored or covered up. It is time these concerns are heard and dealt with. The role of agriculture particularly broad acre farming, surely still holds a important role in providing a secure food base and in the economy of Australia. I would encourage your committee to visit SA and have a firsthand look at the problems we face because of poor Government policy on all levels who seem to have a very poor understanding of broadacre agriculture and the issues that we then face because of their decisions.
